Parents pay tribute to 'beautiful' Hannah

Daughter's death leaves 'a huge void in our lives'

PARENTS of a young model killed just a week before Christmas have paid tribute to their 'vibrant and loving daughter'.

Hannah Wollaston, 23, from Burgess Gardens, Newport Pagnell, pictured, was killed in a car accident near Norwich on Sunday, December 18.

Talking to MK NEWS about their tragic loss, her parents Brian and Christine said: "At only 23 Hannah brought so much love, joy and happiness to all.

"She was a beautiful, stunning, vibrant and loving daughter and sister to Caroline and Cathy and will be missed by all who knew her.

"This sudden loss has left a huge void in our lives."

On Wednesday last week, officers from the Serious Collision Investigation Team of Norfolk Constabulary named Hannah as the driver who died in a crash on the A11 in Besthorpe, south of Norwich.

Her black Ford Ka had hit the road's central barrier at about 3.20am that day.

As Hannah and a passenger tried to get out of the car, which no longer had its lights on, a silver Vauxhall Vectra hit her.

Police and paramedics were called to the scene and CPR was administered by both services, but Hannah was pronounced dead at 4.04am.

Tributes to the former Green Park Primary School and Ousedale Secondary student have been flooding in to her Facebook page.

A message from Jessica-Faye Gutteridge reads: "Such a beautiful kind girl who had such a bright future ahead of her. Life is cruel to the wrong people. Forever in so many people's hearts."

Another, from Alan Crampton, says: "What a tragic waste of life of a wonderful person. Life won't be the same without you."

Hannah trained and qualified as a beauty therapist, but in recent months had been working as a clerical assistant. She enjoyed modelling and promotional work and had been on shoots with national magazines.

WISHEE Washee, one of the stars of Aladdin, always looks forward to reading his latest edition of Milton Keynes' favourite newspaper. The panto, supported by MK NEWS, is being performed at Milton Keynes Theatre until January 15. For your chance to win a family ticket to the show, turn to page 13.

Firefighters may strike over plans

FIREFIGHTERS could go on strike if plans to move a 999 call centre are not changed.

That is the stark warning from the Fire Brigades Union (FBU) in light of the proposed move of the Aylesbury-based control room to Huntingdon in Cambridgeshire.

The FBU said knowledge of the local area, which it claims is vital for crews to respond to emergencies in time, would be lost if operators from the area are not answering calls.

Now it has said if negotiations between it and the Buckinghamshire and Milton Keynes Fire Authority don't change the plans, industrial action is a real possibility for all local FBU members - including many of the city's firefighters.

Gillian Firth, from the FBU, said: "The control room is staffed by skilled local residents that have knowledge about the county. The people in Cambridge don't know Bucks, so they wouldn't know if a call was about Broughton in Milton Keynes or Buckinghamshire."

But the fire authority says safety will not be affected by the move.

Chief fire officer Mark Jones said: "One of the keys to success of any control room relocation is that the public will not notice any change when they dial 999.

"Any suggestions that public or firefighter safety would be compromised by changes of emergency control room provision is ridiculous and neither I nor the fire authority would ever advocate a change which would prejudice public or staff safety."

Disabled girl upset by wheelchair theft

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A TEN-year-old disabled girl from Bletchley was given the worst Christmas present of all after thieves stole 15 specially converted wheelchairs from her basketball club.

Zahra Naqvi has been hit hard by the theft, and when she was told about the crime she asked her mum if she would ever play basketball again.

The little girl joined the Wellingborough Phoenix Wheelchair Basketball Club in September and for the past three months has loved playing basketball.

But this has ground to a halt as a result of the theft.

Her mum Farzana said: "Zahra absolutely loves going and looks forward to it each week. She has been able to express herself physically.

"When I told her about the theft it did hit her hard. She asked me would she be able to play basketball again? Playing games has made a big difference.

"The basketball chairs are specially modified and are so expensive. We could never afford one."

The basketball club left a plain box trailer with the wheelchairs inside at Weavers Sports Centre in Wellingborough.

Sometime between 9.15pm last Sunday and 5.30pm the following day, thieves stole the trailer with the RGK Quatro wheelchairs inside, which each cost £1,000.

The wheelchair facility at the club is open to children of all ages and abilities, including youngsters from Milton Keynes.

The wheelchairs are fully integrated as parents can also use them to play with their children.

Chairman of the club Chris Dabbs said: "I feel hollow and very sad that a lot of sessions which have been planned will now have to be cancelled.

"It is absolutely disgusting someone would want to steal these wheelchairs from disabled children."

Anyone with information can call police on 101.

Swan revived for Christmas

ONE of the city's best loved locals was reopened in time for Christmas following a devastating fire.

Milton Keynes Village's The Swan Inn's assistant manager Emma Amery and head chef Ben Hars, pictured, worked hard to get the pub reopened on Friday. Around 70 people were served Christmas dinner on Sunday.

Teen is locked up after bike robbery

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A TEENAGER who robbed a 15-year-old boy of his bike has been sent to a young offenders' institution for 20 months.

Kyle Fowler, 19, of Westfield Road, Dunstable, was part of a gang who approached the teenage victim at Willen Lake on July 23 this year.

They surrounded the boy and threatened to attack him if he did not hand over his bike to them.

A police search of the area found the gang in possession of the bike.

Four teenagers were then arrested.

Fowler was later identified by the 15-year-old as one of the robbers in an identity parade and he pleaded guilty to the offence.

He was sentenced to 20 months in the young offenders' institution at Aylesbury Crown Court on Tuesday last week.

DC Dave Phipps, of Milton Keynes CID, said: "Even though violence was only threatened and not used, and even though he admitted carrying it out, Fowler has received a substantial sentence.

"At the time, I am sure he did not realise the seriousness of what he was doing.

"But the reality is he used intimidation to carry out a robbery and steal a bike.

"And the sentence he has been given means he faced this Christmas behind bars.

"I hope this serves as a reminder to anyone else who thinks behaviour like this is acceptable, to think again."

'Back door' attempt to stop masts

THE city's Green Party has accused councillors of making 'back door' proposals to prevent any future windfarm developments.

Last Tuesday night, Milton Keynes Council's decision-making cabinet gave the green light to a public consultation on new planning policy for turbines.

If the plan is ratified, it will mean no turbines above a height of 80 metres can be built within a kilometre of the nearest dwelling.

Speaking at the meeting, MK Green leader Alan Francis, pictured, said: "I'm very concerned that this is an attempt via the back door to stop any more applications for wind turbines in Milton Keynes.

"The council is supposedly committed to a low carbon strategy - we need renewable energy to reduce our carbon footprint."

The claim was refuted by cabinet member for planning, Andrew Morris, who said the plan was only to address turbines of an extreme height that impact on residents the most.

He said: "This wouldn't apply to those wishing to put small-scale turbines in places like industrial areas. We are not looking to stop all wind farms."

Jailed for killing pub landlord

A MAN has been sent to prison for the murder of a pub landlord.

At the Old Bailey in London on Friday, Bernado Durantes, 35, was sentenced to life in prison with a minimum term of 14 years for the murder of Jaime Ball at the Globe Pub in Hanslope on December 28 last year.

Durantes, who also lived at the pub, stabbed Mr Ball after an argument.

AS 2011 comes to a close, we look back at the stories that have made the headlines over the last 12 months

By Anna Mauremootoo
Pictures: Andy Handley

JANUARY

DISRUPTIONS to the postal service caused uproar when Royal Mail failed to admit it was having problems, despite letters going missing, being set to the wrong addresses, arriving late and being returned to sender. Later in the month, Steve Smart, the man responsible for the collection and delivery of mail in the city, apologised, blaming modernisation and heavy snow.

A shop assistant narrowly missed being hit by a car when a silver Mercedes-Benz smashed into the front door of Best-One supermarket, Bletchley, pictured above. It took firefighters more than three hours to remove the vehicle because they were unsure about the building's stability.

A fundraising group to help Pakistani flood victims was formed in memory of stabbed student Adil Basharat. It benefited from the proceeds of three songs released by Immortal Voices, set up by Adil's friends.

Pets at Rest, the City's first funeral directors, opened allowing owners to give their pets a personalised send off.

Celebration: Nipponzan Myohoji Buddhists held their bean throwing festival to mark the coming of the Chinese New Year in February

FEBRUARY

CAMPBELL Park once again became home to 120 sheep. They were introduced to help manage large areas of grassland and create a richer diversity of parklife.

John Needham, chairman of the Milton Keynes Local involvement Network, said the implications of NHS Milton Keynes needing to save £104million could result in people having to go elsewhere for treatment.

It was revealed the leader of Milton Keynes Council received almost £40,000 in allowances - on the the day its cabinet met to decide spending cuts.

'Unpresidented' cuts were announced. Councillors confirmed how £27million would be saved in its 2011/2012 budget. Plans included about 600 council staff losing their jobs.

MARCH

A MILTON Keynes electrical engineer who escaped the troubles in Libya returned home after fears for his life.

Paul Ellis, 51, was working on a camp outside Benghazi when it was raided by men with knives and machetes who took all his possessions.

Barbara Zhanje, 48, of Corby was jailed for 12 years after starting the blaze that killed three-year-old Fiyin Ejifunmilayo and her mother Bola, 29.

She had pleaded not guilty to setting fire to her ex-boyfriend's belongings in the multi-occupancy house in Fishermead in September 2010.

The world famous Olney Pancake Race drew bumper crowds who watched Nicky Sallis sprinting to victory in one minute and 12 seconds.

Police launched an internal investigation after MK NEWS discovered an email mocking some of the city's most deprived areas was sent between officers. The email, sent by former Tory councillor Edward Butler-Ellis, made reference to Fullers Slade, where it said the earthquake 'decimated' half the estate causing in excess of £17.55 worth of damage.

APRIL

THE hunt for a suspected serial stabber began after three women were attacked. Two of the victims were stabbed in the leg and the third in the arm, leaving women fearing for their safety.

A community was in shock after a mother-of-one was killed in her home. Kim Jeffery, 37, of Two Mile Ash died from stab wounds and blunt force trauma. Blake Ross, who shared the property with Ms Jeffery, was charged with her murder, but was later found dead in his cell.

BNP member Kieren Trent was arrested while taking part in a protest against a new mosque.

The demonstration took place following the decision to allow The Plough pub in Manor Road, Bletchley, to be converted into the place of worship.

MAY

MK DONS' dreams of Championship football came to an end at Peterborough.

Despite going into the make or break play-off with a 3-2 lead, Karl Robinson's team ended up lossing 4-3 on aggregate.

The city burst into celebration with about 50 street parties taking place to mark the wedding of Prince William and Kate Middleton. The Cambridge Street party in Wolverton, believed to Milton Keynes' biggest, saw more than 300 people enjoy proformances by local talents.

The Conservatives took over the leadership of Milton Keynes Council after the Liberal Democrats ruled themselves out of joining forces with another party.

Their former leader, Cllr Cec Tallack, only held onto his Campbell Park seat by two votes.

Dean Lewington, Karl Robinson and Gary MacKenzie reflect on the defeat as Peterbough fans invade the pitch

A double shooting in Fishermead Boulevard cost two teenagers their lives. Mohamed Abdi Farah, 19, and Amin Ahmed Ismail, 18, both died after receiving gunshots to the head. Three men are awaiting trial after pleading not guilty to conspiracy to murder.

JUNE

POLICE Community Support Officer Dave Huckle was named the best in the county.

The member of the Newport Pagnell policing team was awarded for his support for multi-agency work.

The tragic death of a 13-month-old boy was partly blamed on failings at Milton Keynes Hospital.

Coroner Thomas Osborne criticised a lack of 'clear and focused leadership' and said staff did not recognise that Calvin Prentice-Aucock was dying.

Police patrols had to be stepped up in Middleton after four reports of attempted abductions were made by boys aged nine to 13 in just ten days.

Fake phone chargers being sold in the city were putting people's lives at risk, according to trading standards. The counterfeit chargers caused electric shocks and posed a potential fire risk.

JULY

A MOTHER-OF-TWO was rescued from her burning house by heroic neighbours. Monica Lynn was sleeping when the fire broke out and called her rescuers 'absolutely brilliant'.

Theives went on a spate of knife-point attacks targeting private hire taxi drivers. Offences took place after calls to pick up customers in Chervil in Beanhill, Granby Court and Derwent Drive in Bletchley, Garroway in Coffee Hall and the Fullers Slade shops.

Her Majesty the Queen and Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, visited Bletchley Park to unveil a memorial to the veterans who served at the park during the Second World War.

An ex-prisioner who robbed a partially blind 89-year-old man in his bed by holding a pair of secateurs to his throat was jailed indefinately. Barry Anderson, 35, had only been out of prison for ten days when he broke into the retirement home in Bletchley.

AUGUST

BANKING giant The Royal Bank of Scotland announced the closure of its Milton Keynes office in Silbury Boulevard as part of a downsizing operation.

The death of popular radio presenter George Webley was discovered to be the result of taking the drug Meow Meow, which led to a heart attack.

Riots spread to Milton Keynes forcing a supermarket to close after youths attempted to rampage the store.

Police riot vans rushed to Tesco in Watling Street, Bletchley, and four arrests were made, see right.

A 'lifesaving' charity, which supports hundreds of families both emotionally and practically was forced to make huge cuts to its services.

Home-Start had to closed three of its four support groups after already closing one in Newport Pagnell in March.

The decision to slash speed limits to 20mph on several major roads in West Bletchley was confirmed by the council, angering some residents.

Carry on camping: Daniel Thompson started living in a tent outside his home to raise cash for charity

SEPTEMBER

A MURDER inquiry was launched after 33-year-old David Law was found dead outside a home in Lichfield Down, Walnut Tree. Suresh Nahar, 32, of Gurnards Avenue, Fishermead, is awaiting trial for murder.

Children playing in a park had a lucky escape when a 90-foot tree fell onto a climbing frame just minutes after a young boy finished playing on the equipment in Bow Brickhill.

A farming firm was left more than £27,000 out of pocket after breaching orders to restrict the spread of 'gut-wrenching' chicken manure, which caused a city-wide stink.

A father-of-three began his six-month camp-out charity fundraiser. Daniel Thompson started living outside his house in a tent to raise money for the British Heart Foundation and Cancer Research UK.

OCTOBER

ARMED police scoured Woolstone following a kidnap and assault.

A man was attacked, forced into a car and driven to a wood where he was attacked. A 16-year-old was arrested but released without charge.

Abdullah Patima, 20, of Ramsons Avenue, Conniburrow, is awaiting sentencing for kidnap, false imprisonment, ABH and theft.

A dyslexic man revealed he had become a Klingon expert, the language used in the TV and film series Star Trek, in order to help him with his condition.

The city lost racing star Dan Wheldon, pictured right, when he died at the Las Vegas Motor Speedway. Father-of-two Dan, 33, suffered 'unsurvivable' injuries after being involved in a horrific 15-car crash during the IndyCar 300 race.

MK Council apologised for the 17-month closure of Secklow Gate bridge and set out 17 learning opportunities. Keeping the bridge closed cost about £631,794 - almost three times the original estimated repair cost.

MKNEWS REVIEW OF THE YEAR 2011

The unveiling of the first pillar of the MK Rose

NOVEMBER

PLANS for a new £1.2million sculpture in the city centre to celebrate historical events were revealed. The MK Rose project, supported by MK NEWS, allows residents to put forward ideas on what should be included in the Campbell Park memorial.

Fears were raised over proposals to build a rehab centre in the vicinity of a dozen primary schools. If successful the rehabilitation centre would house men who suffer from serious mental health problems.

A fight over compensation for residents who live on the edges of wind farm developments was taken to Parliament by Mark Lancaster, MP for Milton Keynes North.

An estate which experienced several violent crimes earlier in the year became the focus of a pressure group's safety campaign. Fishermead became a focus for Citizens:MK in the hope of creating the area's first 'City Safe Haven Estate' there.

Three of the youngest people in the country to be named and shamed following the riots were among 13 sentenced from Milton Keynes. The 'mindless mob' were sentenced following the trouble that swept through Milton Keynes and Bletchley in August.

DECEMBER

A MASSIVE fire broke out at The Swan Inn pub in Milton Keynes Village.

It was believed that the blaze was caused by a wood fire, which was stacked too high.

Despite the damage caused to the pub, which had only just been renovated, it reopened in time for Christmas.

Red Bull wowed crowds when they gathered at Midsummer Boulevard to watch their Formula One heroes speed up and down the street.

Fans braved the bitter cold hours before the event to make sure they got the best view of the unique event.

The inquest into the death of Harry Mould concluded, nearly three years after he died.

Donald Coutts-Wood, the coroner for Leicester City and South Leicestershire, blamed the death of a five-year-old boy on the hospital's neglect.

He accused Milton Keynes Hospital of a 'gross failure to provide basic medical attention' to the young boy. The hospital has now apologised to the family.

Sport set to shuttle in ENGLAND'S badminton chief wants the city to host some of the sport's major events.

Milton Keynes is home to the National Badminton Centre but at present the big tournaments in this country take place elsewhere.

This is something that Adrian Christy, CEO of Badminton England, wants to change.

His vision ties in with plans to establish MK as an International Sporting City, which were discussed as the local authority's cabinet meeting last Tuesday.

Mr Christy, pictured, told the meeting: "We believe we have a major role to play in helping the council shape this vision and we have plans to develop the National Badminton Centre into a facility that matches your ambition.

"The home of British badminton is in Milton Keynes, but the major events are outside, and we want to look at how we can bring major badminton events into the city."

Aims of the ambitious sporting city plans include luring top class athletes to local facilities and hosting big competitions.

A boost for the economy and the promotion of healthy values are among the benefits, with the idea already attracting the support of key city figures.

"We have been working with MK Dons' chairman Pete Winkelman at the stadium to look at how we can incorporate their plans with ours, or alternatively how we can host events at the National Badminton Centre," Mr Christy added.

Revving up for new year

STONY Stratford is gearing up to start the new year in style - vintage style.

Hundreds of classic and vintage cars are set to meet for the Vintage Stony New Year's Day Car Festival.

The number of cars on display will be boosted as entries from the Magic of Motoring's First Run charity car run are using the event as a check-in point on route to Sywell Aerodrome in Northamptonshire.

The First Run will see 75 vintage and classic cars flagged off from Red Bull HQ by mayor Alan Richards from 10.30am.

This year's Vintage Stony event follows the success of the festival in 2010 and will see vintage cars and motorcycles, as well as classic cars, coming together to create one of the biggest gatherings of its kind.

Displays of pre-war cars and motorcycles will be in the Market Square and the classic cars will be in Cofferidge Close.

The show starts from 10.30am and a host of awards will be handed out, including the oldest car, the furthest travelled and the car the judges would love to take home.

The event is free for spectators, however, the organisers are raising money for Willen Hospice.

Rolling up: Stony's town crier arrives in style at last year's event

Station Square on course

THE development of Station Square outside Central Milton Keynes railway station is close to completion. Milton Keynes Council has announced phase one of the development is complete and the next phase should be finished in March. In the meantime a traffic marshall will be there to assist with traffic changes.

Goodies in hoodies

A HOST of 'goodies in hoodies' descended on Stony Stratford High Street last Wednesday to spread Christmas cheer and dispel common misconceptions of teenagers. Organised by anti-bullying champion Alex Holmes, the youths performed random acts of kindness, including free hugs and carol singing.

Apprenticeships equality

ONE of the city's MPs has called for apprenticeships to be given greater status as a career option for young people. Iain Stewart argued in a Parliamentary debate that apprenticeships should be regarded as an equally valid option for training and education after school as some of the more traditional forms of further education.

Take heart with flu jab

PEOPLE with heart conditions are being urged to book themselves in for a free flu jab as soon as possible. NHS Milton Keynes and Northamptonshire has said patients with heart problems face a 'far higher risk' of complications if they catch flu. This includes those with cardiovascular disease and coronary heart disease.

Record numbers visit shops

Fun for all: The scenes at An Olde English Christmas

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

MORE than 12,000 children from Milton Keynes and beyond have travelled to see Santa at thecentre:mk this Christmas period - as record shoppers hit the stores.

Father Christmas has now retired until next year after youngsters came to visit him following the opening of An Olde English Christmas in Middleton Hall on Friday, November 18.

On the busiest shopping weekend of the year - December 21 and 22 - 107,000 shoppers were welcomed through the centre's doors, with a jump in footfall of more than 13 per cent from the equivalent Saturday in 2010.

By the end of last week that number was expected to increase to around 750,000 visitors.

Centre director Robert Hall said: "Yet again we are thrilled to welcome record numbers of shoppers through our doors to enjoy all that thecentre:mk has to offer over this Christmas period.

"We believe it is our continued focus on the promotion of thecentre:mk as the region's premier shopping destination that has allowed us to continue the success of previous years.

"This Christmas we have gone all out with the creation of An Olde English Christmas in Middleton Hall, complete with a working train track to take children into Santa's grotto and an elegant outdoor ice rink to compliment Destination Dining.

"Combined with other aspects of thecentre:mk, such as the newly refurbished House of Fraser, these seasonal attractions add to the overall shopping experience, providing our customers with all they need during the festive period.

"We will continue to welcome our guests to enjoy all we have to offer in the centre."

Steve Bluff, general manager at House of Fraser, said: "Following our £4.5million refurbishment in November, our store has been bustling in the lead up to Christmas.

"While all departments have proved a success, in particular shoes, handbags, premium denim and beauty have performed very well this Christmas."

The ice rink and An Olde English Christmas, which includes the MK NEWS train, close on Monday.

The ice rink in Queen's Court can accommodate specific and group bookings, as well as school and corporate party requests.

SPORTSSHORTS

SWIMMING
THREE MK swimmers from the South Beds Masters club shone when taking to the pool at Ponds Forge in Sheffield.

Pete Iles took part in a staggering six events and did fantastically well in them all, winning gold medals in the 50m butterfly, 100m individual medley and the 200m freestyle.

His medal haul didn't stop there though as he won silver medals in the 50m backstroke, 50m freestyle and 100m freestyle.

Helen Davies put on an impressive show by setting new club records in the 50m butterfly and the 100m individual medley.

She also took home silver medals in the 50m butterfly and 50m freestyle and a bronze medal in the 100m individual medley.

At the same event Keith Spence won a gold medal in the 100m individual medley, as well as bronzes in the 50m breaststroke and 50m backstroke.

GOLF
LADIES' British Open Amateur Championship winner Lauren Taylor has been named as the BBC Young Sports Personality of the Year.

The 17-year-old from Northampton plays at Woburn Golf Club.

SQUASH
WORLD number three Simon Parke is to grace the courts at MK Squash Club in Kiln Farm.

The England international will take on world 135 Chris Fuller on January 21 as part of a whole weekend of squash action.

There is also the chance to enjoy a coaching session with Parke and other top coaches.

More information and details are available from steve.townsend@totalsquash.com.

SNOWBOARDING
THE Guinness Book of World Records has confirmed that the longest ever 'rail ride' took place at Sno!Zone in the city.

Fourteen-year-old Calum Paton, from Tamworth, slid 78 metres down the rail to smash the previous record of 69.9 metres.

LEYTON ORIENT 0 DONS 3

KARL Robinson could not have wished for a better Boxing Day performance.

On the day after Christmas there were no signs of over indulgence in East London as Dons cruised to a highly impressive three points.

Robinson's side were rarely troubled as they handed Leyton Orient their first home league defeat since September.

It was the perfect way to bounce back from the frustrating defeat to Preston a week before and with Sheffield Wednesday losing 2-1 at Walsall later in the day, it turned out to be an excellent afternoon's work.

Dons remain fourth in League One and are just two points away from the automatic promotion places.

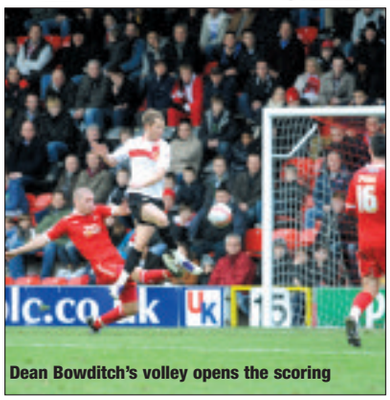
The home side had a great chance to open the scoring in the first half but Kevin Lisbie shot straight at David Martin when well placed and Dons never looked back after Dean Bowditch expertly put them in front.

Striker Jabo Ibehre, who had a superb game against his former club, started off the move with a crunching tackle inside his own half.

Darren Potter swept the ball to Adam Smith on the opposite flank and the right back swung in a delicious cross which Bowditch crashed into the net with a sublime first-time volley.

It was a goal of unquestionable brilliance which included a tackle, cross and finish from the very top drawer, but the second goal was arguably even better.

Smith, who scored a beauty from range earlier this season against Rochdale, let fly with a unstoppable 30 yarder which caught out Orient keeper Lee Butcher and dipped in at the far post.



Dean Bowditch's volley opens the scoring

Dons had come out like a train in the second half, creating chances at will, and Charlie MacDonald added his customary tap-in to complete the victory.

Unlike some other managers Robinson gave his players Christmas Day off and they certainly repaid him for that gesture.

He said: "That's as strong and as comfortable as you're going to see, I thought everyone to a man was outstanding.

"I thought the first half was pretty even, but I've got 11 managers who all think they can do my job and they say a lot at half time which riles them up and gets them going.

"The first goal was typical us, six or seven passes, cross, goal, and Smith is certainly making a name for himself."

BASKETBALL

Bid to repeat TV triumph

MK LIONS will hope to repeat a terrific telly performance when their British Basketball League season resumes following the Christmas break.

Mike New's men were outstanding when they defeated Worcester Wolves 99-82 last month, in front of the watching Sky Sports cameras.

The win helped to kick-start MK's season and with Wolves making their second visit of the season to the Lions home arena tomorrow the target is now a repeat performance.

It promises to be a tough ask though as Worcester are riding high in second place in the table following back to back wins over Newcastle and Glasgow.

Lions are back in seventh following defeat to Sheffield Sharks last time out and will need to contain Wolves star man Sherrad Prezzie-Blue when tomorrow's match tips off at 7.30pm.

Point guard Stefan Gill said: "We need to make sure we're all on the same page because when we play well together we're tough to beat, we're back home again and it's the best kind of game we could have had after a loss like Sheffield – we're familiar with the opposition and at home."

ICE HOCKEY

Tough New Year clashes

THERE will be little let-up over the New Year period for MK Lightning who face a hectic schedule of three games in four days.

Revenge will be the order of the day tomorrow in a home clash with Manchester Phoenix, who downed Lightning 4-2 on their home rink a fortnight ago.

New Year's Day sees an away trip to current English Premier League winners Guildford Flames and a day later a trip to Swindon Wildcats is in store.

Lightning are third and have secured their place in the cup semi-finals, but the three quick games against tough opposition will be a tricky test.

Player coach Nick Poole is hoping injuries will have healed in the 11 days since their last match.

He said: "We've picked up a few knocks and niggles in the last few weeks – Adam Carr, Muzzy Wales, Ross Bowers and Matt Towalski have all missed odd games so the break will have helped everyone heal."

Lions hope to silence wolf pack – page 39

Beevers is eager but Owls won't let Mark stay a Don

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

GIANT centre-half Mark Beevers looks to have played his last game for Dons as promotion rivals Sheffield Wednesday will not allow his loan spell to be extended.

Karl Robinson swooped to bring Beevers to stadiummk on transfer deadline day in August but the temporary deal expires on New Year's Eve and his parent club Wednesday have quashed any hopes of a longer stay.

With both clubs sitting in the League One play-off places and eyeing promotion to the Championship, the decision is understandable.

Indeed, it is perhaps a surprise that Owls boss Gary Megson allowed Beevers to move to Dons in the first place because of the similar lofty ambitions of both clubs.

Beevers could not get into the side at Wednesday but with the clubs locked so close together there will be no more favours.

This comes as a blow to Robinson, who wanted to keep Beevers, and the player himself who was keen to stay.

Robinson said: "It looks like they are not going to let it happen. I wouldn't let it happen if I were Sheffield Wednesday as we are both fighting for the same position.

"Mark Beevers has been excellent and I'd love to keep him but we're not going to have the financial strength to keep him here.

"What a great servant he's been to us in a short period of time, I know he wants to stay here as well."

Dons have already begun to prepare for life without Beevers as he didn't feature in Boxing Day's 3-0 win at Leyton Orient despite still being eligible for that match.

He is also available for the New Year's Eve clash at Brentford but Robinson has already decided to look at the options without him.

Mathias Kouo-Doumbe partnered Gary MacKenzie in the middle of defence against Orient – which would have been the combination to start the season had the Frenchman not suffered a nasty pre-season ankle injury at Oxford.

Shaun Williams is another option along with youngster Tom Flanagan, but Robinson has hinted that the latter may go out on loan.

"I had to make a decision," Robinson said.

"Do I change it on January 1 or do I do it now to see where Mathias Doumbe is at and to see how the back four is going to cope.

"Tom might go out on loan but I've got Shaun who can play there, I've just got good players.

"I think I've got the smallest squad in the league, but I think it is littered with a lot of quality."

Beevers made 14 appearances for Dons and scored once during his spell.

Winger Angelo Balanta, on loan from QPR, also sees his deal expire on New Year's Eve but an extension appears likely after Robinson said the Colombian will play against Brentford.

He scored an excellent volley at Griffin Park last season before suffering an ankle injury which required him to have surgery, and Robinson is keen for the wide man to exorcise the ghosts of that clash.

It will be a tough game against the Bees who lie one place outside of the play-offs in seventh, but Robinson knows his Dons side, in fourth, have a superb platform to build on in 2012.

"We would have accepted this at the start of the season," he said.

City track star can't wait to face F1 stars

CITY driver Zaamin Jaffer will race against some huge names of motorsport after securing his place in a major new race series.

Indian born Jaffer has been confirmed as one of the leading competitors for the brand new i1 Super Series, which will blast into action early in the New Year.

The city-based Indian born driver will compete among a tough entry list – headed up by 1997 Formula One champion Jacques Villeneuve.

Nine teams, each representing a different Indian city 'franchise', will field two cars and the mouth-watering prize purse of $2million has attracted some major names.

Each driver will take to the track in one of 18 identical radical SR3 racers, ensuring a level playing field.

It will be 21-year-old Jaffer's first taste of racing sports cars, and other former F1 stars Jean Alesi, Heinz-Harald Frentzen, Mika Salo, Giancarlo Fisichella and Vitantonio Liuzzi will also be among the field.

He has been named as one of nine 'Indian International' class drivers for the series.

In addition, there are two further classes – one for non-Indian racers with international experience and another for less experienced racers from the sub-continent.

Jaffer is now eager to get behind the wheel and get started and he has already gone quicker than Salo during test laps in the United Arab Emirates.

He said: "The championship has been eagerly awaited for a long time and it's going to be massive for Indian motorsport, it's really exciting to be part of it from the inception and a huge opportunity.

"Having an F1 Champion like Villeneuve and grand prix winners like Frentzen and Alesi involved is fantastic.

"The first test went really well – to have been faster than someone like Mika Salo is a great feeling."

The first race of the series will take place at Malaysia's Sepang International circuit, and the tour will then take in Bahrain, Qatar, India and the United Arab Emirates. Full details of the event will be announced shortly.
